

HOUSTON SAFARI CLUB FOUNDATION CONSERVATIONIST OF THE YEAR AWARD

Each year, the Houston Safari Club Foundation (HSCF) honors an exceptional champion of conservation through its HSCF Conservationist of the Year Award. This award recognizes individuals or organizations exemplifying a true servant's heart for conservation. Nominees are considered for their conservation works related to education, advocacy, legislation, policy, environmental activities, and the protection and preservation of wildlife and habitat.

Nominations may be made by and for individuals or organizations. The HSCF Board of Directors, with input from previous award winners, will make the final selection of the award winner. No monetary award will be given to the recipient of the award. The winner will be recognized for this achievement with the presentation of this award at the annual HSCF Convention and Hunting Expo.

Houston Safari Club Foundation (HSCF) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization whose mission is to preserve the sport of hunting through education, conservation, and the promotion of our hunting heritage. HSCF has awarded 525 scholarships totaling $2.25 million dollars. HSCF conducts youth outdoor education programs, career training, hunter education and field experiences throughout the year. HSCF has provided over $3.7 million in grants for hunter-funded wildlife, habitat and various conservation initiatives. HSCF is an independent organization, is not affiliated with Safari Club International (SCI) or its affiliates and is not chapter or affiliate of any other organization. Visit our website at hscfdn.org/convention/awards/ or call 713.623.8844 for more information.
